

CAMERA RECORD OF THE DAY'S NEWS

DON'T SHOOT THE DOG—Edward Kane, of Pittsburgh, amputated the broken limb of pet bull terrier. He now playfully sports a wooden leg.

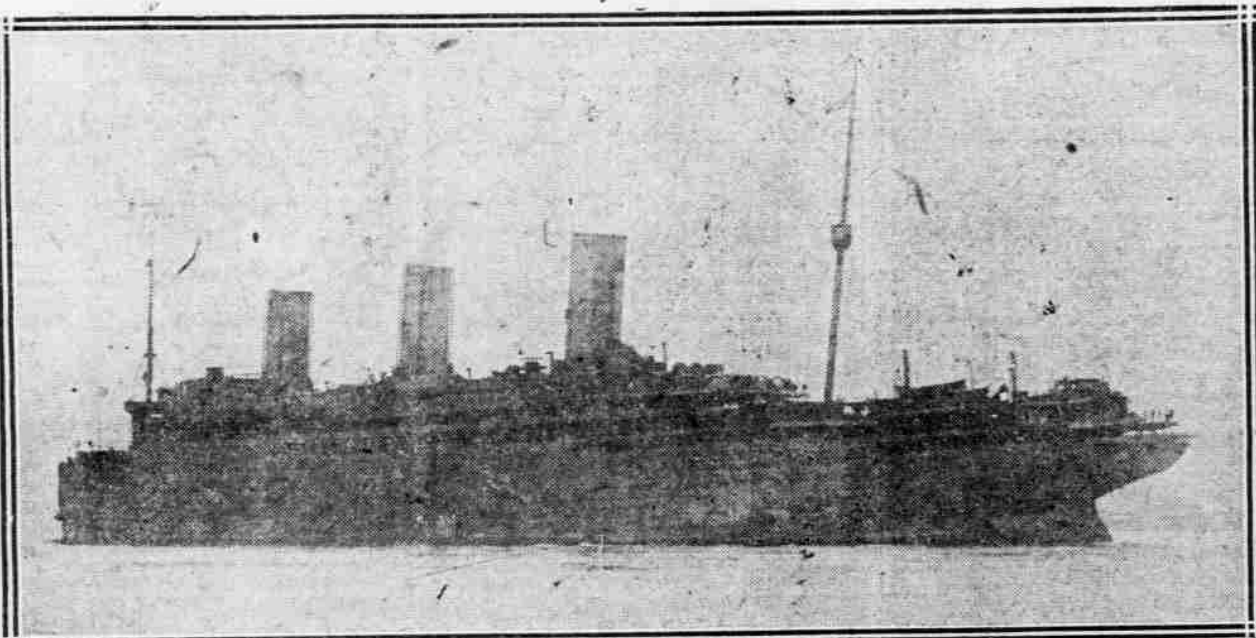

TOMMY MILTON DISQUALIFIED—National champion auto driver barred from coast tracks on charge of receiving bonuses. (Int.)

ROCKEFELLER'S NEWS-BOY—Jimmy Stanton, fourteen, got the thrill of his young life when John D. Rockefeller ordered him to leave newspapers every day. (Int.)

HANDSOMEST MAN IN EUROPE—Joseph Schildkraut, known as handsomest man in Europe, married Miss Elsie Bartlett Porter, a New York society girl, recently in Philadelphia. Received his education in this country and Berlin. (Int.)

LEVIATHAN STARTS FOR NEWPORT NEWS—Picture of giant liner as she quietly nosed her way out into Hudson River from her pier. She has safely reached port and will be reconitioned.

KING OF BELGIUM ILL—King Albert is in Paris, suffering from a nervous breakdown, his physicians report.

BRIDE OF INDIAN RED WING—Marion Stehlik complains to Magistrate Oberwager that her husband has abused her since marriage two months ago. (Int.)

NEW AMBASSADOR TO UNITED STATES FROM GERMANY, Dr. Otto Wiedfeldt. So far as known first photo to reach this country. (International News Reel)

PRINCETON BASEBALL CAPTAIN BARRED—Thomas H. McNamara, Roxbury, Mass., one of three prominent athletes declared ineligible as result of secret inquiry. (W. W.)

MRS. HARDING'S EASTER HAT—Every woman and girl in the United States is interested in the Easter hat to be worn by the President's wife. Here it is, a gift creation from Mme. Sunshine, New York milliner. Flowers and blanch-colored marquerites.

SIR HARRY LAUDER and Sir Thomas Lipton enjoy a cup of tea. The famous yachtsman met the equally famous comedian on Lauder's arrival in London from America.

ANOTHER BOY WONDER WITH CUE—Ha yden Cain, thirteen, of Sharon, Pa., has won his last thirty-one games against expert pocket billiard players. (F. G.)

NATIONAL K. OF C. HEADQUARTERS OPENED—Supreme Knight Flaherty (standing) speaks at first executive session of board of directors in New Haven, Conn.

SIR ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE, famous writer of Sherlock Holmes, being greeted on S. S. Baltic by William J. Burns, our famous detective, now in Department of Justice. Sir Arthur is delivering a series of lectures on psychic phenomena in this country. (Int.)

JOHNNY HORNER, six years old, finds $3,000 in Liberty Bonds in an ash can in Chicago. He cut up $300 worth before father stopped him.